FIRST CAUSE FOR DENIAL OF APPLICATION

(September 11, 2012 Criminal Convictions for Misappropriation of Lost Property & Grand Theft on March 6, 2012)

13. Respondent's application is subject to denial under sections 480, subdivision (a)(1) and 9841, subdivision (a)(3) of the Code in Respondent was convicted of crimes that are substantially related to the qualifications, duties, and functions of an Electronic Service Dealer.

The circumstances are as follows:

a. On or about September 11, 2012, in a criminal proceeding entitled People of the State of California v. Robert Walter Bivins, aka R.W. Bivins, in Riverside County Superior Court, case number RIF1201653, Respondent was convicted on his plea of guilty to violating Penal Code section 485, appropriation of lost property to his own use; and Penal Code section 487, subdivision (a), grand theft, felonies reduced to misdemeanors by the court under Penal Code section 17b.

b. As a result of the convictions, on or about September 11, 2012, Respondent was sentenced to 120 days in the custody of the Riverside County Sheriff, with credit for one day, to be served in the Work Release Program. Three years summary probation was granted. Respondent was ordered to pay restitution to the victim, plus fees and fines, submit to a Fourth Amendment waiver, and to stay away from the victim. Respondent’s probation was revoked and reinstated three times for failure to report for work release. At a hearing on January 25, 2013, the court reinstated Respondent’s probation and converted the term requiring 119 days in the Work Release Program to 952 hours of community service.

c. The facts that lead to the convictions are that on or about the afternoon of March 14, 2012, the victim contacted the Moreno Valley Police Department. The victim stated that he had ordered three laptop computers from Dell for $2,500 to be shipped via FedEx. When the victim contacted FedEx to find out when the computers were going to be delivered, he was told they had been delivered to Respondent’s business, “Nerds for Less,” across the street from the victim’s business. The victim stated that when he contacted Respondent, Respondent told him that he had received the laptops, but an unknown black male had stolen them. The victim filed a claim with FedEx. The Moreno Valley Police Department conducted an investigation and learned from Respondent’s employee that he witnessed Respondent sign for the laptops. After interviewing Respondent at his residence, Respondent admitted he had possession of one of the laptops, and had given the other two to friends. Investigators contacted the friends and learned that one laptop had been sold for $520, and the other was taken in trade for another computer. All three laptops were retrieved as evidence, and then turned over to investigators for FedEx. Respondent was subsequently charged with grand theft and misappropriation of lost property.
SECOND CAUSE FOR DENIAL OF APPLICATION
(Acts Involving Fraud, Deceit and/or Dishonest Dealing)
