WHO MUST FILE

All household movers, even those in voluntary suspension, shall file quarterly report of gross operating revenue and pay a fee of $15.00 for each quarter.

WHO MUST PAY FEES ON GROSS OPERATING REVENUE

All household movers, must pay the fees on gross operating revenue in addition to the $15.00 quarterly fee.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING SUBHAULING

Prime movers engaging the services of subhaulers are responsible for the payment of the fees on the gross California intrastate earning of subhaulers. Prime movers hiring subhaulers and subhaulers hiring sub-subhaulers should maintain records sufficient for Bureau staff to verify revenues on Line 2.

HOW TO PREPARE REPORT

Line 1: Include on this line all revenue earned from transportation entirely within California of shipments of used household goods. The term "household goods" refers to personal property and effects used or to be used in a dwelling. This includes items such as furniture, furnishings, clothing, radios, musical instruments, stoves and refrigerators. Household goods does not include office furniture, furnishings and equipment. Be sure that you do not include revenue from operations on private property or operations from interstate or foreign commerce.

Effective January 1, 1998, a holder of household mover permit issued by the Bureau may transport office, store, an institution furniture and fixtures under that permit instead of a motor carrier permit issued by Department of Motor Vehicles. (Reference: Vehicle Code Section 34622) Revenue from the transportation of office, store, and institution furniture under a household movers permit should be reported on Line 1.

Line 2: Show that the amount of Line 1 which was earned from operations as a subhauler (transported shipments of used household goods for another mover) under a household mover permit.

Line 3: Subtract Line 2 from Line 1.

Line 4a: Show that amount of Line 3 which was earned from the transportation of shipments of used household goods subject to rates contained in the Bureau's Maximum Rate Tariff 4.

Line 4b: Show that amount of Line 3 which was earned from the transportation of exempt shipments, which are defined as:

- (1) Shipments of personal property and effects to be used in a dwelling but which are not subject to the rates contained in the Bureau's Maximum Rate Tariff 4. A list of exemptions is contained in Item 12, paragraph 2 of Max 4. One exemption, for example, is the transportation of "property of United States, state, county or municipal governments or property transported under an agreement whereby the governments contracted for their movers' service."

(2) Shipments of office, store, and institution furniture and fixtures transported under a household mover permit and not under a motor carrier permit issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

Line 5a: Multiply the amount of Line 4a by .007. (This is $7 for each $1,000 of revenue.)

Line 5b: Multiply the amount of Line 4b by .001. (This is $1 for each $1,000 of revenue.)

Line 6: The $15 quarterly fee must be paid by all household movers even when not operating. Five dollars of this fee are transferred to the California Highway Patrol Cargo Security Program.

Line 7: Add lines 5a, 5b, and 6. This amount is due and payable to or before the penalty date stated on Line 8.

Line 8: A penalty of 25% must be added if this report is not filed (based on postmark) by the penalty date.

Line 9: If report is filed on or before the penalty date, enter total from Line 7. If filed after penalty date, enter total from Line 7. If filed after penalty date, enter total of Lines 7 and 8. If fees are not received within 30 days after penalty date shows on Line 8, your authority will be subject to suspension.

Line 10: UNIFORM BUSINESS LICENSE TAX (applicable to all household movers)
Each mover is responsible for payment of the Uniform Business License Tax. A prime mover shall NOT deduct the one-tenth of one percent tax from the subhaulers' earnings.

Line 11: A penalty of 25% (minimum $1.00) must be added if this report is not filed (based on postmark) by the penalty date.

Line 12: Add Lines 10 and 11.

Line 13: Credit may be taken for excise or license tax paid to a city for the privilege of conducting intracity transportation. If the amount paid for the city excise or license tax exceeds Line 10, enter only amount shown on Line 10. The excess credit may be claimed in succeeding quarters within the same calendar year. To claim credit, you must list the name of the city on Line 13. If your claim exceeds $100.00 you must submit proof of city license tax and payment.

Line 14: Subtract Line 13 from Line 12.

TOTAL AMOUNT DUE AND PAYABLE

Line 15: Add Lines 9 and 14. This is the total amount due for Rate Fund Fees and Uniform License Tax and must be remitted with your report. This amount cannot be less than the amount shown on Line 9.

MOVERS ENGAGING SUBHAULERS

Line 16: Enter on this line the amount you paid to subhaulers to transport intrastate shipments of used household goods. A subhauler who engages another subhauler should also enter on this line the gross amount paid to the sub-subhauler(s).
